

Study room B4

Study room serves for students of the CTU as a room for their studying needs and free time. The project meetings of the Silicon Hill club are organized here. After agreement with room admin you can use this room for the other purposes, which don't resist against the Czech laws, moral and ethical principles and regulations of Student union or Silicon Hill club.

The room is situated in the middle of second and third floor of block Nr.4 at the college of Strahov in Prague. The entry is enabled by chip card (ISIC) or Silicon Hill host card.

You have to visit registrar before your first visit (write an email to admin4@sh.cvut.cz).

You can use a magnetic board – markers and sponge can be borrowed at room admin. You can use only water based markers.

Rules for this room:

- Entry is allowed only for members of SH club who have paid at least basic membership.
- By entering you are responsible for all persons who come with you
- If you damage or discover some damaged equipment, you have to immediately report this to the room administrator. Otherwise you assume full responsibility.
- Before leaving check if the windows are closed, the monitors are turned off, all the garbage is in the trash, the lights are off. When you leave, try if the door is closed.
- Room is monitored by CCTV and every entry is logged to the system because of security reasons
- Drinking alcoholic beverages is prohibited.
- NO SMOKING!

Respect others and treat them

Room admin:

Ondřej Chládek (o.chladek@sh.cvut.cz, 4/113)